

In order to enroll in MALS 137 (Thesis Research) for each term, and to receive a grade of Credit (CT) or No Credit (NC), students must:

- Be “in residence” for the term (within commuting distance to campus)
- Meet regularly with the first reader to keep him or her informed of progress (weekly, or bi-weekly at a minimum)
- Demonstrate satisfactory progress in research or writing of the project[#].

Anticipated Terms of Thesis Registration: _____

Anticipated Graduation Date: _____

Please note the following:

- Students (not covered by an international student visa) may opt NOT to enroll in MALS 137 for part or all of their thesis work, but will not be eligible for student aid with this option.
- International students who wish to pursue thesis research without being enrolled in MALS 137, may only do so with the permission of the Office of Visa and Immigration Services, or their home country.
- Students may only enroll in thesis research, MALS 137, part-time or full-time, for a maximum of 4 terms.
- If a student enrolls in MALS 137 and does not demonstrate satisfactory progress in their work through meetings with their advisor, or does not adhere to the meeting schedule to the advisor’s satisfaction, a grade of ‘No Credit’ (NC) will be recorded at the end of the term.
